CORPORATE SPONSOR PROGRAM

What is it?

The Corporate Sponsor Program is a public-private partnership between businesses and the Johnson County Election Office.

What are the benefits?

- Increase corporate visibility
- Increase civic partnership and awareness
- Strengthen Election Day pool of workers
- Public recognition
- Community service award

How can you participate?

Businesses release their employees (with pay) to serve at the polls on Election Day. The Election Office pays the employees the regular poll worker stipend as an incentive.

And/Or

Businesses donate space to establish a polling location at their place(s) of business.

Why do we need your help?

The Johnson County Election Office's goal is to strengthen its Election Day pool of poll workers and locations thereby increasing the efficiency of the electoral process and the confidence that the community has in the process as a whole.
